February, 2021

Dear Church Family,

Thanks be to God that our work here at Sheridan Avenue United Methodist Church is filled with such blessing and joy! I love the way that the Lord has continued to meet our needs in our lives. He is the healer of our souls, and the author and perfecter of our faith. I wish to offer you all words of encouragement and hope as we meet together each Sunday in this month of February. Let's keep being a beautiful reflection of the blessings that we have received. Remember, we are the Light of the World!

In Christ,

Pastor Mark

Fortunately, the spacious living environment of the cottages at the Frances E. Willard Ministry Center, and Pearl's Hope, allows them to accept families of most any size and children (boys and girls) up to age 18. Please help with your support!
